For those unfamiliar with IPA, it is a term that refers to an alphabetic approach based on the Latin alphabet used widely to define oral speech, with an emphasis on quality characteristics, such as intonation, for instance. This alphabetic system stands as basis for linguists, translators, language students and even actors that need to gain more precision in what oral interpretation is concerned. IPA Help was designed to sustain user efforts to learn a foreign language and to encourage them to focus on the accuracy and finesse of the speech. That is why using it can result in amazing accomplishments in oral skills.
