- Easy to learn, hard to master - 100% Free - A racing game of action with graphics and sounds that bring back the arcade good times
Gameplay Features: - Your score depends on how many of your opponents you're able to eliminate in the time allowed to complete a level. There are lots of different stages in this game, with different types of obstacles that you must face to complete them. From vehicles to endless runners to platforms, barrels to jumping rings, each level requires a different skill level, and you will need to practice constantly to improve and succeed. Game Controls: - Swipe your touchscreen to move your character around. - Tap to shoot a ninja - Tap on ninjas to eliminate them. - The game will try to run out of time before you complete a level. The higher the time limit, the more points you can earn before the end of that level. Whack A Ninja An arcade-type indie game created by Chris Braibant, a former indie game developer. It's a game of action and beautiful graphics that'll be a nostalgic throwback to your memories of playing an old classic like Super Dodge Ball or Marble Madness. Hope you'll enjoy playing this indie game. Let me know if you have any suggestions or feedback in the comments section below. KSNA is one of the most challenging airport to build, and for lack of places to practice multi-cargo type operations. KPVS has to match it with a few Los Angeles area airports for practice: LAX (Also known as LA Int'l), Long Beach LAX and Oxnard. In addition there will be taxiways, parking ramps, and other obstacles that need to be stripped out of the chart. This will be the most challenging commercial complex from KPVS, and it will require extensive preparation before the start of this project. Download here: KPVS Virtual Sim Preparation Pack for Flight Simulator X How to Install: 1 - Unzip the entire file. The INSTALL.bat will run the setup program for you. 2 - To play the Airport Simulation, run the INSTALL.bat again. 3 - (Optional) Download and install the official FSX version of KSNA, if you are not already running it. 4 - You are ready to play the airport simulation. Install the Preparation Pack KPVS Preparation Pack KPVS Preparation Pack KPVS Preparation 3D modeling: DP1266S (Reduced Resource Pack) KPVS Preparation Pack KPVS Preparation How to install: Download the Preparation Pack zip file, and unzip it to your Flight Simulator folder. How to Start: Launch the Preparation Pack, and follow the instructions to install and start the Simulation. 3D modeling: DP1266S (Reduced Resource Pack) 2D / 2.5D Graphic Textures (XPlane.exe -r res/texture.dds) Download here: KPVS Prepared Sim Objects How to Install: Unzip the entire file. The INSTALL.bat will run the setup program for you. How to Start: Launch the Preparation Pack, and follow the instructions to install the Sim Objects. As mentioned above, there are also 2D and 2.5D versions of these files available, they are labelled "2D". The names of the 2D files are "XPlane.exe", "XPlane.exe.res", "XPlane.exe.res.package". I strongly recommend using the "2D" version, as it saves about 30 MB c9d1549cdd

If you are looking for a game that is not too graphic or too scary, and doesn't require hours of studying you may want to try this game out. As with most of the best games the gameplay is easy to navigate and feels natural. Your adventure takes you through a small town that appears to be abandoned. The town is also without electricity, so you have to use your flashlight, and your brain to unravel all the mysteries. As you spend more time playing you may learn more of the story. There is one story element in the game that is great. As you start to explore the town you find a note from someone that is asking you to bring them some honey. You are sent on a journey to find the honey, but you can't really begin your journey until you buy some batteries. It is just a small, but effective element to the gameplay. It is a game that is made of several puzzles as you search for the way home and the answers to these puzzles will make you think. Gameplay: As mentioned the gameplay is easy to navigate and requires nothing more than the basic flashlight function. You are invited to explore the town and the different sections of town and solve the puzzles. The puzzles are not hard or too difficult, and you will need some concentration to solve them. You can turn on your flashlight if you need to. Some puzzles can get a little trickier, but nothing too difficult. There is also a built-in map that helps you navigate through the town. As you continue to explore the town you will meet people and find them to be interesting characters. I can't discuss much of the story without spoiling it. You can watch the story unfold and become immersed in it as you solve the many puzzles. The atmosphere and setting are incredible. You will need to make decisions, but they are not bad or difficult to make. You will have to talk to people, and the choices you make will change the outcome of the story. You can choose to be nice or mean. You can choose to help someone or hurt them. Both choices are sure to lead you down a path that makes for a great story. Gameplay: No other game has managed to create a game like this one, and I am sure there won't be another. It is a genre that is all but forgotten, and is one that needs to be rediscovered. The combination of interactive storytelling, environment, characters, puzzles, and the overall setting leaves you with one fun and addictive experience. Pick this game up if you are battleschool19: Share heroic feat pedigree with a successful death check.Fri, 21 Jan 2018 15:16:54 GMTWed, 27 Nov 2018 07:50:13 GMT school19 An undocumented simple feat that would allow someone to bypass the death check for his party in order to "Join the game"Fri, 26 Dec 2015 15:24:16 GMT school19 This feat is mostly assumed to never be used correctly. But there is one situation in which it does work and that is with a natural 1 on a death saving throw. Naturally you are allowed a free action to focus your character on the roll and then reroll the save, simultaneously granting you back your focus if you succeed.Fri, 26 Dec 2015 13:32:05 GMT school19 One of my favorite feats. It tells you what to do at what time depending on who you are focusing your attention on. Kinda risky if you have an unplayed character, but on average you could probably count on an unplayed character to gain some level 2 experience to level 17 through this feat. 1d4 + 1 for each ally you have focused on in a round, natural 1 on a death saving throw, something like that.Fri, 26 Dec 2015 10:57:02 GMT school19 The classic feat that combos well with any feat that lets you choose the damage dice of your bleed... like Bloodied Aim. Go big or go home, if you are willing to spend points on it
