I'm from Nairobi, Kenya. How many people does Egypt have? How many houses / houses hold do they have in Egypt? A: Apparently, Egypt had 6,466,558 in 2010. Source Also, see a source that shows that this number dropped to 6,193,706 in 2011. Source A: How many people does Egypt have? There are approximately 76 million inhabitants. How many houses / house holds do they have in Egypt? There are about six million houses. Approximately, Egypt has 6,466,558 inhabitants and approximately 6 million houses. Source: Batteries of the type which are useful in the environment of an alternator of an automotive vehicle typically comprise nickel-metal hydride (Ni-MH) cells having a very high energy capacity and high charge voltage, for example, from about 22 volts and above, and lithium cells having a much lower energy capacity but with a lower charge voltage, for example, from about 10 volts to about 14 volts. The lithium cells use either a solid or a liquid electrolyte, whereas the Ni-MH cells use a liquid electrolyte. In many known Ni-MH cell configurations, the cell is flooded with a liquid electrolyte which serves as the anolyte and catholyte material of the cell. Ni-MH cells are commonly used in automotive applications such as starting and main electrical systems, and other energy storage applications such as batteries for remote energy sources. The system of the present invention is of use in a vehicle having a plurality of Ni-MH batteries, which are charged from the alternator.
