Last Another Day in Paradise: With a Ticket to Hawaii from 1-800-Flowers.com a few Saturdays back, we wrote about the delicious, delectable, and beautiful Hawaiian-inspired wedding cakes by Joy Domestic in the "It" section of the Sunday Fun section of the Madison.com. Back in June of last year, we were lucky enough to have a Cupcake Competition, where owners Joy Domestic and Aaron Bagwell (Cupcakes and Tea) had the chance to create delicious fruit tart, spice cakes and lemon cakes to be sold at the event. You see, both Joy Domestic and Aaron Bagwell are homeowners from St. Cloud, Minnesota, and each have a passion for baked goods; Joy's desserts are delightfully simple, while Aaron's cakes are extravagantly sinfully rich. When the pair co-founded the commercial enterprise, the decision was made to combine their baking talents to bring you the best of what Hawaii has to offer: cake. Oh, and they have plenty of other delightful confections to offer, too. Their spice cakes are a winner, their teas are said to be the best in the state, and they have an unrivaled selection of beer. As of late, Joy Domestic has started selling her cakes at bridal fairs and other small gatherings. Joy, along with the help of Aaron Bagwell and Joy Domestic's husband, John (a Minnesota architect), have perfected each cake to fit their way. To celebrate the 10th anniversary of their business, Joy Domestic is offering a winner of the "Hot! Fresh Hawaiian Wedding Cake" (see photo) a trip to Hawaii for two to experience the colorful culture and delicious tropical food. Courtesy of 1-800-Flowers.com, just enter the contest when you place your order at 800-FLOWERS.COM, and you'll be entered. Winner will be notified by phone. Other things to do: And the cake that didn't win a trip, but was entered in the contest anyway, is pictured below. The second contest is for the cake in the above photo to win a trip for two to Hawaii. Cont.
